

MMHS Eagle HighFLIGHTS:

Boys' Golf: CONGRATULATIONS to our Boys' Golf Team who took State on Tues, Oct 7th, at Riverbend Golf Club in Riverton. Our team came from 12 shots down after the first day to win by 4 strokes over Timpview and Bonneville. Kai Ruiz was the overall medalist shooting 5 under par the first day and six under par the 2nd. We will honor the team with a fire truck ride in conjunction with the class wars assembly on Friday morning, Oct 6 10th.

MMHS Theatre: This past weekend the Theatre department participated in the Utah Shakespeare Festival and won first place in the ensemble scene competition-- a first for our school. They competed in one of the largest divisions in the competition with 20 schools. Senior Derek Maxfield also received the Larry Lott acting award given to the most outstanding actor in an ensemble scene. Students also participated in individual events with short scenes and monologues. We could not be more proud of our 2014 Shakespeare team!

MMHS Choir: Last weekend, the Utah All-State Choir took place in the historic Tabernacle on Temple Square in Salt Lake City! Based on our choral enrollment, Maple Mountain was able to send 20 (the highest possible number of participants) to All-State Choir. There were 700 high school students from all around the state. Our students had an incredible experience.
