MMHS Attendance Information

Students who have accrued over 10 hours of missed class time due to tardies, unexcused absences, or sluffs, are not eligible to participate in any extracurricular school activities, athletics, or events until they have made up their missed class time. In order to be eligible, students need to make-up time to be under 10 hours. Students are responsible for monitoring their missed class time balance and serving the hours necessary to be eligible for participation in school events. Students who are over 10 hours of missed class time receive a Non-Participation Notice each week. Athletes receive an additional notification that needs to be signed by Mrs. Richins or Mrs. Davis, and taken to their coach verifying they are eligible to participate. Please encourage your student to recover their learning and make-up their missed class time through one of the following options:

- Make up time with a classroom teacher before or after school
- Attend a math or science lab before or after school
- Serve time in lab C-207 during lunch or after school

If you need to excuse any absences for your student, you may do so within five days of the absence by contacting our attendance office at 801-794-6740.

Missed class time hours do not start over at the beginning of each term, but continue accumulating throughout the school year. Students need to stay under 10 hours of missed class time to participate in sporting events, field trips, walking at graduation, etc.

Attendance Recovery Key

Attendance Issue	Definition	Time to Recover
Tardy (T)	Student arrives to class between 0-10 minutes after bell	15 minutes
Late Tardy (L)	Student arrives to class between 10-40 minutes after the bell	30 minutes
Unexcused Absence (U)	Student arrives after 40 minutes into class or misses class; parent does not excuse	75 minutes
Sluff (S)	Student is verified by school personnel as not being in assigned area: class, assembly, library, etc., and may not be excused	90 minutes

This is the 2019-2020 Attendance Recovery Schedule, listing locations where students may make-up missed class time. We have copies of this schedule in the front office and in Lab C-207. Please visit with Mrs. Davis or Mrs. Richins if you have questions.
