MMHS ELLEVÉS Win Sweepstakes at First Competition

The MMHS Ellevés competed in their first competition of the season, The Wasatch Drill Invitational Competition, at Wasatch High School on Saturday, December 1. The Ellevés competed in the Pom, Hip Hop, Military, Dance, and Kick categories. The Ellevés won 1st place in the Pom category, 1st place in the Hip Hop category, 1st place in the Military category, 1st place in the Dance category, and 1st place in the Kick category. The Ellevés also won the 5A Overall Sweepstakes award. The team was very excited and pleased with their success! Three Ellevés took all three medals in the drill down. Hannah Ream won 3rd place, Abbie Jackson won 2nd place, and Valerie Friant won 1st place. The Ellevés will now prepare for their next competition which is on December 15 at UVU.

ATTENDANCE INFORMATION

Parents: If you leave a message to excuse your student on our attendance voicemail system, be sure to check your student's SIS account 24 hours after your call to ensure the absence has been excused. (It takes 24 hours for SIS to reflect updates.) Sometimes voicemail messages are unclear or not audible, resulting in the student's absence not being excused. That is why it is so important for parents and students to be proactive in checking SIS to confirm absences have been taken care of. Please contact our attendance office if you have questions or concerns regarding this process. Thank you!
