Heidi welcomed everyone and thanked them for coming. She excused DeAnn Nielsen.

Shea led everyone in the pledge, Emily gave a thought on the Christy Kane presentation about the 8 second hug, and 2 of 3 of her kids look forward to the hug and miss it if forgotten. Her challenge is to give it a try with your own family, it does make an impact.

Janine talked about teacher appreciation, it is currently going on and is much appreciated. It has been a fun week already. Heidi asked everyone to look over the minutes from the last meeting, Shauna made a motion to accept the minutes, Jessica 2nd motion passes.

Heidi discussed that the next meeting will be April 16th

Rachelle discussed the focus for counseling becomes graduation and scholarships. They are meeting with seniors that may have concerns and ask all seniors to report the scholarships they receive.

Janine thanked them for the counseling web site, she appreciated all the information that can be found there and how easy it is to access. Rachelle discussed Hope Week was a success, the chalk art was rained out but that was the only little set back.

She reported we had one state sterling scholar finalist, Josephine Schmidt this year and 4 that had gone on to the final competition.

Shea and Holly discussed the Trustlands funding and proposal. Holly went over the code and description for Trustlands uses.

She then went over how the funds have been expended and how the funding currently stands. Shauna read the plan and it was discussed that this is this year's funding – approving how it has been used.

Holly discussed some data of student testing, and advanced classes, CTE classes, attendance, and other student data.

Holly then went over the goals for next year's funding. Shea discussed the professional development portion of the funding proposal. He also discussed the attendance portion of the proposal. Holly discussed the remaining goals.

Shea discussed the safe school goal for the school. He explained it is more than locked doors, it includes emotional and mental health components for the students. He discussed building security is also be reviewed.

Shauna asked about a goal to include school culture – that could be incorporated with student council and hope squad. That every student felt safe and included and a unity of student body.

Shauna made a motion to accept last year's plan and expenditures and accept this year's plan, Denise 2nd the motion – motion passes.

Jeff discussed the last drill will be the Great Utah Shake Up - the school is then looking toward the mock crash.

Shauna asked about the Eagle statue that is currently having funds raised to acquire – have parents been notified of the project and that they could donate. Christy asked about fund raisers do students have to participate or can parents make up the portion of the fund raiser. Jeff discussed that fund raisers are not mandatory that no student has to participate. She asked why program are doing multiple fund raisers. Jeff explained each group can do 2 per year.
