

MMHS Eagle HighFLIGHTS:

Prep of the Week: Thomas Mortensen has been selected as this weeks "Prep of the Week." Thomas has been outstanding with his defense and rebounding for the boys basketball team this year. His performances lately have helped the Golden Eagles to two big region 8 wins this past week. Congratulations Thomas and good luck the rest of the season.

ACT Prep Class: Students may sign-up for the next ACT Prep Class, in the Finance Office. (This is a two session class scheduled for 1/25/14 & 2/1/14, from 8:00-11:30 am). The cost is $50, which includes an ACT textbook.

Concurrent Enrollment (CE). If your student is enrolled in a class this semester at MMHS that offers concurrent enrollment credit, your student has until January 22 to submit all prerequisite test scores (Accuplacer, ACT) and MMHS transcript to UVU. Check with course instructor to see if this is required for your student's class as not all classes require prerequisites. January 22 is the last day for Sophomore by Exception applications to be submitted to UVU's CE office. ALL Sophomores wanting to take a CE class must submit this application. January 22 is also the last day to enroll at UVU. Friday, January 24 is the last day to register through UVU for a concurrent enrollment class. This deadline cannot be extended. Students who discover that they have a "hold" on their account will need to pay UVU's tuition from Fall semester before being allowed to register for Spring semester. Most questions regarding CE may be answered by going to UVU's website www.uvu.edu/concurrent and then click on High School Students. For answers to questions regarding CE that you cannot find online, please contact your student's CE teacher or Robyn Dunn (robyn.dunn@nebo.edu).

National School Breakfast Week: Nebo School district is celebrating National School Breakfast Week beginning March 3rd through March 7th. We are inviting all students to join the celebration and eat a nutritious and complementary breakfast for free in their schools on Tuesday, March 4th. The 2014 theme for this annual event is "Take Time for School Breakfast" and we hope your student will "take time" to come and eat with us!

PTSA Corner: (Jana Kessinger, President)

- PTA members who have children with disabilities might be interested in attending a reception with legislators. See info below. You are asked to RSVP. You are also requested, if you are attending, to contact your legislators and invite them to this reception and let them know you will be there and hope to meet and visit with them. This is a great opportunity for you to share your experiences or needs with someone who could help you find a solution. We highly recommend this great opportunity and encourage you to meet and get to know your legislators. If you don't know who your legislator is, go to this address and type your address into the box: <http://le.utah.gov/GIS/findDistrict.jsp>. Utah Legislative Coalition for People with Disabilities Reception with Legislators, Thursday, February 6, 2014, 4:30-5:45 pm in the State Capitol Rotunda
- Utah Higher Education Assistance Authority (UHEAA) is pleased to announce the 2014 lineup of Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) Completion Nights. In collaboration with our partner schools, we will be helping Utah students and families file the FAFSA at over 60 locations around the state. This is not just for seniors in high school. Everyone planning to go to college this summer or fall is welcome to attend any of our events!!

Over the course of our FAFSA Nights (end of January through March), we will be awarding four (4) $500 scholarships to Utah high school and college students. Here's the best part... All they need to do to enter is come to a FAFSA Night event and submit their FAFSA. If you are hosting your own FAFSA night, your students can apply for the scholarship as well. For more details, please see the "Events" section of our Facebook page (www.facebook.com/uheaa/events) or our Eventbrite page (uheaa.eventbrite.com). As always, if you have any questions please let us know. We are looking forward to a great FAFSA season! See you all on the road.
